THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.NAGARJUNA REDDY

WRIT PETITION No. 22606 of 2005

ORDER:-

This writ petition is filed for the following substantive relief:

> "… … Hon'ble Court may be pleased to issue a writ or order more particularly in the nature of the writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in deducting the crop insurance premium from the crop loans released and to be released to the petitioner at the rate of 1% to 11% towards crop insurance premium in the khariff and rabby seasons 2005-2006 as illegal, arbitrary and violation of provisions of the Constitution of India and pass such other order or orders as are deem fit and proper in the circumstances of the case."

None appeared for the petitioner.

Heard Sri M. Vidyasagar, learned counsel for respondent No.1.

In view of the fact that the petitioner is not represented by the counsel, the writ petition deserves to be dismissed for default. Even otherwise, it is liable to be dismissed on merits as well.

The petitioner has not indicated as to how respondent No.1 is concerned with the disbursement of loan by respondent No.2 -

Bank. The petitioner has not averred whether any loan was, in fact, disbursed in favour of the society and if so, which of the two respondents had deducted the premium towards crop insurance.

As the averments in the writ petition are too vague to be considered for granting any relief in the writ petition, it deserves to be dismissed. Ordered accordingly.

As a sequel to dismissal of the writ petition, WPMP.No. 28950 of 2005 filed by the petitioner for interim relief is also dismissed.
